Rules for Taking Courses :	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. In accordance with the General Provisions for Study, undergraduate students need to satisfactorily complete Service Learning, meet the university-wide basic competencies of English, Information Technology, Chinese, and Sports, and pass the core competencies of their department to be eligible for graduation. 2. Students need to complete at least 12 General Education course credits. General Education courses are divided into three areas: Humanities, Social Science, and Natural Science. Each area is divided into two subcategories: core and extended. Students need to take 1 two-credit course in both of the subcategories within each area to be eligible for graduation. 3. This course framework can be applied retroactively to students who entered before 2020-21 academic year. 4. Credits that are related to the Communications field and are taken from the General Education cannot be included among graduation credits. 5. All elective and required courses of the Communication school are regarded as professional credits of TV and Radio Department. The policy applies to students who entered from 2020-21 academic year. 6. The credits of interdisciplinary focused course program are not included in course structure diagram that can be regarded as the other department credits. 7. News Reporting and Writing I, News Reporting and Writing II are two elective courses that the Department requires students to take. However, students will not be required to retake the courses if they fail them and this will not affect their eligibility for graduation.
